Acts 1:6 – 14

The book of Acts tells the story of how a few people became a movement that would radically change the world. It is a story of how the Church was born; how the Holy Spirit empowered and directed them and how he still does today. Today's verses are filled with information, inspiration, and direction. Amongst its riches are two essential elements of the church: the power of the Spirit and the mission of the Church. Don't let today's passage be lost on ecological debate or historical details.
